

Kodiak Legislative Information Office A Government Resource for Alaskans

"Alaska is such a large, diverse state that we need to have a means of connecting constituents with their Legislators. The LIO's provide that connection with friendly and attentive staff that can help the public to understand the legislative process, connect with lawmakers, and testify on legislation in real time."

Legislative Information Office (LIO)

Our mission: to facilitate communication between the Legislature and the public.

Teleconferencing and Public Hearing Protocol

- Public hearing teleconferences are electronic extensions of the committee process, and are usually limited to a specific subject or bill.
- Hearing protocol is selected by the committee chairperson.
- The chair may request that the testimony be limited to a certain length of time, and will decide the order of participation in the teleconference.
- Before beginning your testimony, state your name and who you represent, if applicable.
- Remember to identify yourself each time you speak.
- Indicate to the chair when you have concluded your testimony.
- Teleconference protocol during formal committee meetings shall be designed to serve the agenda of the committee and accommodate the conventions of a legislative hearing.

Legislative Information Offices are non-partisan and serve the entire Legislature.

Facilitating Communication Between You & Your Legislators:

“The Kodiak LIO is such an important link between home and Juneau when we’re down here for the legislative session. I know that the LIO is there helping my constituents stay plugged in to the process, and helping them make their voices heard.”

~Rep. Alan Austerman

“Is there something you would like to know about the Great State of Alaska? Well, there is the perfect place for you to go – the Legislative Information Office in Kodiak. I have been utilizing the LIO for the past 20+ years in a myriad of matters and strongly encourage anyone who is seeking information to contact their office.”

~Kate Ballenger, LIO user

“For the past three decades, the Kodiak LIO has consistently provided me with prompt, accurate, timely, and unbiased information regarding State of Alaska and Legislative issues. Dealing with the courteous, friendly staff of the Kodiak LIO is always a pleasure, whether by telephone, e-mail or in person.”

~Jake Jacobson, frequent LIO user

“The LIO’s are the most critical element in giving Alaskans the most accessible government in the United States”

~Mike Milligan, frequent LIO user
